

DRAMA SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

REGULATION 2024

I. Preamble

The Drama Short Film Festival 2024 is organized by the legal entity governed by public law "Cultural Organization - Drama Short Film Festival" (hereinafter the "Festival") of the Municipality of Drama, Drama, Greece (Government Gazette B '2521/2012). The Festival aims at the promotion and development of cinematographic art, the preservation of audiovisual works - short films, the promotion of cinematographic art in Greece, the cultural decentralization and the dissemination of Greek short films, as well as at the encouragement of networking and friendship between creators, filmmakers and actors worldwide.

This Regulation governs the conduct of the Short Film Festival, according to the specific provisions for each competition section, for the year 2024 and participation implies acceptance without reservation of all the terms outlined in the present regulation. For the participation to be considered valid, the necessary documents, declarations and guarantees provided herein must be submitted by the participants (hereinafter and for the sake of brevity also referred to as "participants"). The Festival reserves the right to cancel any submission or to take any appropriate action in case of violation of the terms and conditions set forth in this Regulation or in case of act or omission that disrupts the proper conduct of the Festival.

II. Competition Sections

1. Cinematherapy Lab

- A. The Cultural Organisation may organize in Drama, from the 2nd to 8th 2024, the Cinematherapy Lab, during the Drama Short Film Festival. Three (3) or four (4) films submitted for participation in the Competition Programs are selected to be projected and further discussed and analysed.
- B. To be eligible for participation, films shall meet the following conditions:
 - B.a. Greek Premiere is required for the submission of films to the Competition. Therefore, prior public performance, screening, broadcasting or rebroadcasting of their works to the public by radio and television by any means to the public in Greece or on-demand access in any way before or during the days of the Festival is not allowed. The presentation of the film shall be deemed to be public when the film becomes accessible to a circle of persons wider than the narrow circle of the family and the immediate social circle of the author, regardless of whether the persons of this wider circle are at the same or at different locations.

B.b. Films shall be completed within the year 2023 or 2024.

B.c. The DCP to be screened at the Festival shall be available in one of the formats provided for in this Regulation for film screening and in one of the formats provided for in this Regulation for online screening.

B.d. Each director may participate in the Festival with only one (1) film,

B.e. Film genres that may participate: fiction films, documentary films, animated films, experimental films.

B.g. Films that have participated and were rejected by the Preliminary Committee may not be submitted.

1.1. Deadline for application

For the participation, no separate application is submitted. Films for this non-competitive section are selected by the Head of the Cinematherapy Lab, upon the proposal of the Head of competitive programs.

1.2. Application: Entry Procedure and Material

Material should be sent by the director or the producer, as defined in the National Competition.

Films are selected for competition by the Chair of the Program, appointed by the Board of the Cultural Organization upon the Artistic Director's or, (if he is prevented), his Deputy's proposal.

8.3 Distinctions

Within the framework of the Cinematherapy Program, it is possible, following the decision of the Festival, selected films to be distinguished. Specific issues for these Awards will be announced within a reasonable period of time.

I. "Drama Festival Travels"

The Festival organizes the screening of films in various regions of Greece, seeking to promote the filmmakers and their work.

In particular, in collaboration with cultural institutions, public organizations and legal entities under public and private law, the Festival promotes the screening in appropriate venues in Athens (a) of all films that will be submitted for participation in the Official Greek Competition Program and (b) the films that will be submitted for participation in the International Competition Program and will be awarded.

Furthermore, and for a period of fourteen months, i.e., from October 2024 to December 2025, the films that will be awarded in each category may be selected for screening by a network collaborating with the Festival (such as Cinema Clubs, Municipal Cinemas, Festivals, Cultural Organizations, Municipalities, Cultural Centers, Associations and Extraordinary Events).

The Cultural Organization will obtain a relevant written permission from the producer or his heirs for the participation of the films in this action.

II. Copyright

The author and / or producer and / or rightsholder (hereinafter referred to as "Producer") declare that they hold all the copyrights required for the film to be submitted and to participate in the competition programs and the events of the Festival. The Producer shall submit, when applying, the relevant statement - provision of guarantees in printed or digital form, as provided in Annex I hereof, providing the necessary licenses.

It is possible that films submitted for participation in Competitive Programs according to the present Regulation will be selected for non-competitive events of the Festival, such as events for special occasions and / or events of other organizations - organizers. In case of selection of a film for participation in a non-competitive action, the Cultural Organization will obtain a relevant written permission from the Producer or his heirs.

The Festival is permitted to broadcast snapshots and / or extracts of any work submitted for a duration not exceeding 2'59" by the Media and / or the internet for the promotion of the film and the Festival. The license for the aforementioned retransmission is valid for one (1) year from the final choice of the film.

III. Archive

Since its establishment, the Cultural Organization - Drama Short Film Festival has always conducted a mission of preservation, collection and classification of any document, work of art, audiovisual material and any other material or audio material of cultural creation. Furthermore, the Cultural Organization proceeds to the recording, indexing, classification and microphotography or digitization of the aforementioned files or media, in order to make them available to the public but also the operation of the departments and programs of the Legal Entity and the Municipality. Furthermore, the Cultural Organization creates, organizes and preserves archives that have a special historical value for the public, so that they can be used for study and research.

To this effect, each participant gives a free permission to the Cultural Organization for the perpetual storage, preservation, archiving and classification of the audiovisual work in the archive of the Cultural Organization. Participants also give a free permission to the Cultural Organization to make a copy of the work in any form, technologically known or not today, in order to ensure its preservation. The participant may revoke the relevant permission.

The Cultural Organization shall request for a permission from the participant/rightsholder, in order to include an audiovisual work in a special archive for study, research and / or other use, promotion or exploitation.

IV. Film Market

As part of its objectives and in alignment with international practices in the field of audiovisual events, the Cultural Organization operates an online platform known as the Film Market. The primary goal of this platform is to facilitate communication between directors and producers, connecting them with distribution companies and television channels. The overarching purpose is to facilitate the purchase, distribution, and promotion of films not only within the festival but also at other international events. This initiative aims to foster interaction among professionals in the short film industry, thereby promoting their economic activities.

The Film Market encompasses all films submitted for participation in the competition sections of the Festival. Greek films, in particular, are allocated to a distinct category. It is important to note that the Festival reserves the right to categorize films at its discretion, and contributors may not receive prior notification of such categorization.

The file submitted by the applicant shall be uploaded to the Film Market. In case of modification of the file, any interested party can send a request via email to info@dramafilmfestival.gr

In case of objection to the described upload to Film Market, the applicant shall send a request via email to info@dramafilmfestival.gr

V. Receive and Return of materials

Hard drives and other hardware shall be sent in the Secretariat of the Festival, either in Drama or in Athens. Shipping costs for the participation and return of hardware shall be paid by the participants.

VI. Personal Data

For the participation in the Festival, all personal data required in the application form shall be collected, namely:

- (a) the names of the director, the actors and all the contributors;
- (b) the e-mail address of the applicant;
- (c) a brief curriculum vitae of the director;

(d) a photograph of the director.

(e) contact details (email address and telephone number) of the producer and director

The Cultural Organization may publish in the Media, on social media, in newspapers (print and digital) and all kinds of websites concerning cinema, in addition to information and data relating to the film, the names of the director, the actors and all the contributors, the c.v. of the director and the photograph of the director.

The Cultural Organization is the controller of personal data and determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data as defined by the personal data protection policy.

VII. Miscellaneous

The screening program of films in each Competition Program shall be determined by the Artistic Director of the Festival.

It is underlined that non-compliance with the set deadlines leads to exclusion from the procedure.

It is explicitly noted that all the dates and deadlines provided in this Regulation, including those mentioned for each competition program are indicative for the Festival, which reserves the right to modify them. In case of any change, the Festival shall notify the public and all interested parties.

The Awards for each Program may be modified and / or changed upon the recommendation of the Artistic Director.

It is explicitly noted that in case of force majeure, the Festival may be canceled or conducted only in digital form. General strike, natural disasters and emergency measures for the pandemic constitute cases of force.

The President of the Festival is responsible for resolving any dispute that may arise as a result and during the implementation of this Regulation and makes every effort in order amicably settle any dispute in accordance with the principles of good faith.

In case of non-settlement, the dispute shall be subject to the mediation process, conducted by a mediator registered in the Register of Certified Mediators maintained by the Ministry of Justice, Transparency and Human Rights. The seat of mediation will be Drama, in Greece, and the process will be conducted in Greek.

If the dispute is not settled through mediation within twenty (20) days from the beginning of the procedure, the Courts of Drama are solely responsible for the final settlement of the dispute arising from the application of this Regulation and the applicable law is Greek law.
